7. Sharing Your Information

We do not sell, rent or trade your personal information.

We may share your personal information with carefully selected third-party service providers who assist us in operating our business and delivering our services. These may include providers of customer relationship management systems, website hosting, email communications, event management, payment processing, IT support, professional advisers and other business support services.

We may also disclose personal information where required to comply with legal obligations, regulatory requirements, court orders or to protect the rights, property or safety of Beaufort Private Equity Limited, our members or others.

All third parties processing personal information on our behalf are required to maintain appropriate security measures and process such information only in accordance with our instructions and applicable data protection laws.

8. International Transfers

Some of our trusted service providers may process personal information outside Gibraltar.

Where personal information is transferred internationally, we take reasonable steps to ensure appropriate safeguards are in place to protect your information in accordance with applicable data protection legislation.

9. Data Security

We are committed to protecting your personal information and have implemented appropriate technical and organisational security measures designed to safeguard it against unauthorised access, disclosure, alteration or destruction.

Whilst we take reasonable precautions to protect personal information, no method of transmission over the internet can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

10. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, including satisfying legal, regulatory, tax and accounting obligations.

Where personal information is no longer required, it will be securely deleted or anonymised.

11. Your Rights

Subject to applicable law, you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal information.
- Request correction of inaccurate or incomplete information.
- Request deletion of your personal information.
- Request restriction of processing.
- Object to certain processing activities.
- Request a copy of your personal information in a portable format.
- Withdraw your consent where processing is based upon consent.

Requests relating to your personal information should be submitted using the contact details below.

12. Cookies

Our website uses cookies and similar technologies to improve your browsing experience and help us understand how visitors use our website.

Cookies are small text files placed on your device which enable the website to function efficiently, remember your preferences and provide anonymous information about how visitors use the website.

We may use cookies to:

- Ensure the website functions correctly.
- Improve website performance and user experience.
- Analyse website traffic and visitor behaviour.

- Remember your preferences for future visits.

You can control or disable cookies through your browser settings at any time. Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality of parts of our website.

Further information regarding our use of cookies may be published in a separate Cookie Policy.

13. Third-Party Websites

Our website may contain links to third-party websites for your convenience.

We are not responsible for the privacy practices, security or content of those websites and encourage you to review their own privacy policies before providing any personal information.

14. Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may amend this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in legislation, technology or our business practices.

The most current version will always be published on our website together with the date of the latest revision.
